All I Ever Wanted

Dear Family and Friends,

Thank you all for joining us today as we begin our new life together. We feel truly blessed to be surrounded by your love. Each person here today represents a treasure that God has given to us, and we would like to take this opportunity to praise Him for making these relationships and this day possible. It is only through God's grace that we know what true love is and it is our prayer that we will start every day of our marriage determined to live as a reflection of His unfailing love.

To our parents, words cannot begin to express our gratitude. Thank you for all of the love, guidance, and support that you have poured into us over the years and for the many sacrifices, both big and small, that you have made to ensure that this day, and so many other days in our lives, were special.

To our Detroit-area family and friends, thank you for all of the time and resources that you have devoted to making this season of our lives and this day so memorable for us. And, a special thank you to so many of our loved ones who traveled a great distance to share in this celebration with us. We consider your presence here today an honor and an unforgettable gift.

Finally, on this special day, we would lovingly like to recognize and remember our grandparents who are unable to be with us physically, but are present with us in our hearts, minds, and spirit:

Blanche Barrow
Jim Bartlet
Lillian and Manny Rousse
Daisy and Louis Ledet

Again, we thank you all for being here today, we love you all dearly, and may God bless each one of you always. Love,

Janet and Damon Ledet
